

Institution organizes professional ethics programs for students, teachers, administrators and other staff:-

Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya organizes professional ethics programs for students, teachers and employees separately. During Fresher's welcome of the new student office of the Dean of respective school and/or the Head of the Department organizes the Fresher's welcome and induction program where teachers, professionals from industries, university student related office bearers etc., give lecture on the ethics of students, code of conduct of students. Senior students also participate to share their experience in the University.

For the teachers, after joining they attend orientation program in the university organized by the UGC Human Resource Development Centre (HRDC) of the University from where they gather the knowledge of professional ethics and code of conduct of the teachers. UGC HRDC Centre also conducts Guru Diksha Proames for teachers to inculcate values, ethics and conduct in the university.

For the administrators and other staff orientation program for non-teaching staff is organized from time to time by the university UGC HRDC. From this program they gain knowledge of work ethics and understand the code of conduct applied for them.

Professional Ethics is taught to the PhD – students as a part of their pre - PhD coursework (Research Methodology) in all the schools of the university.

Department Of CSIT
Report on Student Induction Program 2021

The major objective of the Induction program was to make students aware of the academic aspects of the course and the rules and regulations of CSIT department and Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya. The Student Induction Program was conducted for First year newly admitted students of MCA and M.Sc. (CS) on 21 December, 2021 at 11:00 AM. Students were formally welcomed and introduced to the culture of the campus and University. Dean, H.O.D, teaching faculty members and non-teaching faculty members of CSIT department were present in the occasion. The program was started with a welcome speech by Prof. A. K. Saxena, HOD, Department of CSIT, School of Mathematical and Computational Science followed by the faculty members. A brief introduction to the induction program and its objectives was provided by Prof. A. S. Randive. All faculty members informed the students about the rule, regulations, examination process, attendance, sports, cultural activities, student welfare scheme, university website, anti-ragging act, various cells of the university, facilities available and motivated the students. Some of the faculty members discussed the importance of positive thinking and attitude which brings optimism in life. An interaction session was carried out among the faculties and students of CSIT department. The faculty members also listed out the infrastructure available in the University and advised the students to set the right path for their future. The program was very meaningful for the students. A total of 64 students and all the faculties of CSIT department were present in the meeting.
