सीयू के स्वयंसेवकों ने लगाए पौधे संरक्षण का संकल्प लिया

बिलासपुर | बढ़ते प्रदूषण और क्लाइमेट चेंज को देखते हुए वृक्षों का संरक्षण आवश्यक है। लोगों को इसके संरक्षण के लिए जागरूक करने विश्वभर में अंतरराष्ट्रीय वन दिवस के तौर पर मनाया जाता है। इस अवसर पर सीयू की स्वयंसेविका आकृति ताम्रकार व अन्य ने पौधे लगाए और संरक्षण का संकल्प लिया। लोगों को पर्यावरण संरक्षण के क्षेत्र में जागरूक किया।

News clip of activity

Due to climate change & heavy deforestation it's our duty to save environment and save trees, so, our every work is devoted to save environment. The students of GGV decided to make their own artificial forest known as Tree outside forest. Then students planted 340 hybrid saplings of Teak (Tectona grandis) & other tree species at Ratanpur city site.

Students used to involve in many plantation activities throughout the year, they have planted 220 plants in regular activities near Mahamaya Temple, Ratanpur and in University campus. Whenever they organised any programme they always try to distribute saplings to every participants & take pledge for their better growth and survival. Their work have appreciated by Nagar Palika Parishad Ratanpur, for this purpose in the Ratanpur city. Some of students have distributed 200 seed balls also for afforestation purpose. And with the collaboration of Bilaspur District Forest department students have organised plantation drives and because of active participation every news paper have covered this activity and they got so many appreciation by district administration & Forest department. Students of GGV have done a new thing for plantation of Ficus species, that they have collected the plant saplings from sewage, alleys, drainage areas, etc then they planted that plant near water body, by this way students have planted 35 ficus species (Bargad & Pipal) plants.
