REPORT ON ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB (ELC)

BACKGROUND:

India is a democratic country and the success of a democracy depends on the active participant and voters. The youth of the country played an important role to strengthen democracy. With this objective, the Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) was established by Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya (A Central University), coordinated by Professor Santwana Pandey from the Political Science Department in the year 2019. The club has been organizing the Electoral Literacy Fest, with the recurring theme "Nirvachan Saksharta Mahaotsav," since 2019. The club's prime objective is to empower the students to become active citizens of the country and participate in the political process of the country and strengthen the nation.

TARGETED GROUP:

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) targeted the students of Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya to educate and empower them in voting, participating, and the Indian democratic process of election.

PREREQUISITE:

There is no extra qualification is needed to participate in this Electoral Literacy Club (ELC). All students from all the departments and courses from undergraduate to Ph.D. can participate and be a part of the club and be empowered and aware.

OBJECTIVE OF THE ELC:

The ELC was formed to achieve the following objectives:

- A. To give a practical learning experience of elaction to the students during their academic study.
- B. To create awareness and educate students on the Indian Democratic Election System.

- C. To enroll the name of new voters (The university students who have completed 18 years of age) in the electoral list of the state election commission.
- D. To educate students about the prevailing voting system in India.
- E. The objective of the club is to equip students with the knowledge they need to exercise their right to vote in an informed and responsible manner.
- F. By giving them the required knowledge and information, such as familiarising them with political processes, voting rights, and citizen duties, the club focuses on raising awareness among potential voters—the students, and the young minds.

SCOPE FOR THE STUDENTS:

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) provides excellent scope for the students of GGV in the following ways:

In a democratic country like India the mechanism by which people can choose their representatives at regular intervals and change them whenever they want to be called an election. They can choose who will make laws for them. They can choose who will form the government and take major decisions. Hence educated, young minds and active voters can make democracy more strengthen. The Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya trends the students and makes them aware to participate actively in the political process of the country. It also provide them a scope to enroll their name in the electoral roll of the state.

ELC has been set up at GGV, taking various initiatives to achieve the objective of ELC. Students and faculty members from all departments participate and contribute to its success. The ELC conducts its activities in different phases which are as under:

1st phase: The campaign to raise awareness about ELC

- This is the initial phase of the ELC, the existing members and volunteers of the ELC conduct an awareness campaign and inform the newly admitted students at the graduation level about the formation of the ELC, its objectives, and various activities.
- The ELC holds its annual Electoral Literacy Fest between March and April, and The ELC tries its best to promote awareness and education related to election activities.
 - During this, The students participating in activity like the compose and preparation of lyrics ELC for the election song.
 - The Nukkad Natak team prepares the script for their act.
 - Under the Model Matdan activity, the roles of BLO and ERO are played, and they prepare the voter ID card of the student registered in two ways: Students who are 18 or older and whose names are not officially registered for voter cards can apply with the help of the Election Commission's voter helpline, Aaps, to register their names. Second, for the model Matdan activity of the ELC, enrollment of names in the voter ID card and preparation of the voter list are done.

➤ Apart from this, the process of filling out the nomination form for participating in the election of model voters is done.

- After that, the existing volunteers also create awareness among the new students regarding the activities conducted under the ELC. Like; Nukkad Natak, Debate Competitions, and Poster-Painting competitions under the Wall of Democracy activity,

2nd phase: The model Matdan Preparation Activities

- The participant acquired hands-on experience in the election process during this phase, from the election campaign to the announcement of the election results.
- For gaining practical experience students prepare their election manifesto and present it before the people (University students). And file their nomination and start campaigns for voting.
- In order to educate the students about the voting system prevalent in India, the model voting activity involves the activities related to the functions of booth level officers (BLOs), electoral registered officers (EROs), Presiding Officers, Polling Officers, Returning Officers associated with the election process and their functions in the election process. Under the model voting activity, students participated as various officers and got the knowledge of how to operate Electronic Voting Machines (EVM), Voter verifiable paper audit trail (VVPAT), and other electronic devices used in elections.
- On a fixed date the model Matadan is conducted by the students. The students act as presiding officer, returning officer, and first, second, third, and fourth polling officers to conduct the election.
- Finally, the election is conducted in the same process as conducted in India and the result is announced by the concerned officer.

3rd Phase: The Electoral Literacy Fest

- This is the final and annual fest of the ELC, where the coordinators present their report on the activities conducted for the current year under the ELC and their vision and plan for the upcoming year. The Winners are awarded in the annual fest who participated in different activities of ELC.

In order to achieve the above objectives the ELC has conducted the following programmes:

- Nukkad Natak: Knowledge is imparted through the presentation of small, meaningful stories.

- Wall of Democracy: Competitions such as poster making and slogan writing encourage creative expression and engages the participants in reflecting on their hidden talents as well as learning more about electoral values.
- Debate Competition: The club organizes debate competitions on topics of relevance to democracy. For example, the theme for the 2021–22 debate competition was “Should the Government Make Voting Compulsory for All”. The Students participating in ELC activities write and compose a song for every fest.
- Election Song: This activity increases and involves students' talents to compose an electoral song that informs people of the electoral process and systems. URL for the composed song: ELF_2020 (Theme Name: “My Vote My Right”): <https://youtu.be/W1hNPn1nEBc>; ELF_2022: Theme Name: “My Vote My Future: Hum Naye Dour Ke Matdata Hain Vote Dekar Loktantra Ka Parv Manayenge” <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Pu-WpN5XZ9Y&t=227s>
- Model Matdan: This activity serves as a practical demonstration of the voting process, with the setting and mimicking of a polling station. Selected students perform various roles such as polling officers, presiding officers, returning officers booth-level officers, and voters. Each role holder gives a presentation about their responsibilities, and candidates campaign with their manifestos and speeches.

In short: The ELC organizes its annual Electoral Literacy Fest between March to April and finally registers their names in the voter list. Most importantly the ELC has conducted its awareness functionaries in the year 2022-June in a virtual mode during the period of COVID-19 when all the universities are not functioning physically. The ELC tries its best to promote awareness and education related to election activities. The Literacy Club creates awareness among the students on how to voluntarily participate in the Election process and help the underprivileged sections of society. especially transgender, commercial sex workers, disabled persons, senior citizens, etc.

PROGRAMME ORGANISED UNDER ELC

“NIRVACHAN SAKSHARTA MAHOTSAV, 2019”,

Date & Time of Event: 01 October 2019 (2:00-4:00 PM)

Report on a Student Activity on Electoral Awareness Theme Name: “Nirvachan Saksharta Mahotsav, 2019” Date & Time of Event: 01 October 2019 (2:00-4:00 PM) An electoral literacy programme was organized by the class of BA (Hon’s)-Political Science first Semester inUTD Wing B, Room 81 premises on 1st October 2019 to sensitize the students on their electoral rights and familiarize them with the electoral process. The event embraced interesting and thought-provoking activities with diligent participation of all students performing various important roles.

- A melodic election song motivating the youth to be aware was performed by Samiksha team students.
- The audience also couldn't take their eyes off the beautiful 'Wall of Democracy' decorated with informative artworks representing the theme of event in a creative manner.
- Amidst the further proceedings, an amusing 'Nukkad Natak' (skit) was presented conveying the important message to vote ethically and make the informed choice.
- Students acting as Electoral Registration Officer (ERO) and Booth Level Officer (BLO) explained the important process of getting registered as a voter, gave brief of the eligibility and documents required and prepared a Electoral Roll (Voter List). A list of scrutinized candidates with different symbols allotted to them for contesting in election was made by the Returning Officer (RO) who also stated the rules and code of conduct for campaigning. Total 6 candidates campaigned, gave speeches and presented their manifestoes full of appealing promises to attract voters. Moving ahead, at polling time the Presiding Officer demonstrated the voting process and assured a fair polling by showing empty ballot-box and making security checks. About 23 voters arrived at the polling booth. They all stood in queue, approached one by one, got their names verified by first Polling Officer (PO), got their fingers inked by second PO and collected the ballot paper from the third one. They were asked to drop the marked papers in the ballot-box secretly after folding it once vertically. After all votes were put, counting was conducted by Presiding Officer and Polling Officers under supervision of Returning Officer. Few ballot papers were rejected and the reasons were explained. The result was declared and was accepted by all. The winner candidate was congratulated and was expected to fulfill her statements. The guests praised the class students and encouraged them with valuable remarks. The event came to conclusion with a vote of thanks by. Students enjoyed a lot and dispersed with the sincere hope that such events be organized at frequent times.
