ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my pleasure to express a profound sense of gratitude to all those who helped and encouraged me in completing this research work. First and foremost, I record my utmost sense of thanks to my Supervisor ----- for his support and guidance extended during the course of my research work. Without his constructive criticisms and invaluable guidance in planning the scheme of the study, this dissertation wouldn't have been possible. His ideas and insightful thoughts gave a new dimension to my work and made it more meaningful. In this regard, I am short of appropriate words to express my gratitude to him.

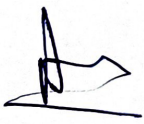

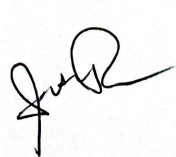

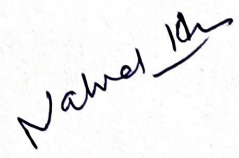

I would like to express my sincere thanks to teachers of my department especially -----, Head of the Department, ----- and other faculty members for their indispensable suggestions at various intervals of my research work proved to be helpful and spruced up my work.

At last but not least, I would like to extend my sincere regards to my family, my beloved elders ----- for their invaluable help and support in editing, and providing important information and materials throughout the research work.

I am also thankful to the staff of the -----Library, GGU. I am extremely grateful to my family members and especially my parents for their complete faith in me, boosting my spirit, believing in me, and letting me do what I want to do.

My thanks are also due to many other unnamed friends and acquaintances whose help and influence, helped me to develop the ideas in the research work.
