

1-"12thfail"

12thFail is a motivating book especially for the aspirants of civil services exam and discussion Was conducted on 10th of June 2021. This book is written by Anurag Pathak sir.

The story of a boy from the village of Muraina to IPS officer. This story tells how he struggled in his earlier life and then prepared for civil services. During preparation he met her future wife Shradhha whom he loves more than anything on this planet and how the two achieved their goals without getting distracted. This story proves all those statements wrong which says love and studies can't go together.

A real life story of a person coming from scratch and becoming an IPS officer , the book is based on real life with very minimal alteration of the happenings , it gives few good tips and methods to cope up with situations and majorly a good demonstration of never give up attitude. The story revolves around the struggle of Manoj, the book gives an insight of the state PCS and UPSC preparations.

About 50+students are participated. In this program also questionnaire series taken.