Concept Note: In ChhatraGhat schools lack of adequate numbers of English language teachers and hence, the students lack necessary language abilities in English as a second language. This not only hampers their development in school learning and higher learning but also restricts their employability. Whereas, language development supports in learning of other disciplines at school as well as higher level, i.e., it is highly required that alternative strategies to be developed to support students language learning for developing language skills and for reading for pleasure. Reading cards can be cost-effective but productive strategy to ensure this purpose. Hence, the department proposes an activity for developing effective reading cards for upper primary level students by experts, school teachers, teacher educators and ELT trained teachers/subject experts.	The cards are specifically designed for independent self-paced reading. Each reading card contains a complete self-contained text. The texts are wide-ranging with passages on people, place, science, folklore, and stories from real life and mythology with lively and imaginative illustrations to accompany them. At the end of the text simple comprehension, grammar and vocabulary exercises enable self-evaluation.
Under the Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching (PMMMNMTT) Scheme of MHRD, the department recruited development and distribution of reading cards in English for upper primary level to extend its support for the enrichment of the school children of the area. The whole project will be covered throughout the year and the third workshop is being organized at this third phase on the proposed date for developing reading materials on different themes.	CHIEF PATRON Prof. Anjali Gupta, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor PATRON Prof. Shubendra Kumar, Registrar CONVENER Dr. C.
