

A REPORT ON-

ABORTION: PRO LIFE OR PRO CHOICE.

By- Miss Shefali Das

A debate competition was organized on 22/07/22 by the Department of Political science for the students of B.A (second semester). The event was graced by the presence of Honorable HOD, Anupama Saxena, Judges chosen for the event were Dr. Amit Kumar Gupta and Mr. Akash Tawar and the debate was coordinated by Miss Shefali Das.

The topic chosen for the debate was, "The right to abortion". Despite the word "Abortion" being a societal taboo, the students presentation on the topic was astounding. This not only depicts the far reaching exposure of the reality of what the political science department has to offer but also enriches students academically on the lines on the "New education policy", which focuses on experiential learning as a way to breakthrough the traditional classroom education. After a well conversant debate, Anupama saxena maam shared a few words of motivation with the students, highlighting the importance of vocational education and how these activities can be used refine ones future prospects. Thereafter winners were announced, utsav chandra stood first Akriti Ghrithesh and Naman jaiswal were first and second runner up respectively. A vote of thanks was delivered by Miss shefali Das, where she gave conclusive statements on behalf of both the teams and congratulated the participants on having a cognizant augmentation of thoughts.
