Report of the Constitution Day Celebration on 26.11.2019

As per the direction of the UGC, the Constitution Day was celebrated in Guru Ghasidas (Central) Vishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur (C.G) on 26.11.2019 to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of adoption of the Indian Constitution on 26th November 1949. Active initiatives were taken and wide publicity was given by GGV Administration to encourage participation of students, teachers, and other members of staff. The IT cell of the Vishwavidyalaya made sufficient arrangements for the audience to view the function held at the Central Hall of Parliament. The arrangement to see the live telecast of the function at Central Hall of Parliament was made in 3 venues within the Campus of the Vishwavidyalaya, at (a) the Conference Hall, Administrative Building; (b) the Rajat Jayanti Sabhagar, and (c) the Central Library. The reading of Preamble to the Constitution of India was administered by Hon. Vice Chancellor Prof. Anjila Gupta at the Conference Hall. Prof. A.K.Saxena, Professor of Computer Science, and Dr. A.K.Sharma, Librarian, administered the reading of the Preamble at Rajat Jayanti Sabhagar, and at Central Library, respectively, to all who attended the ceremony. More than 550 students, teachers, officers, and Staff members saw the live telecast of the function at the Central Hall of Parliament in these places and in different departments. A number of banners were prepared, many photographs were taken, and some videos were made on this occasion. A brief video of the reading of Preamble to the Indian Constitution administered by Hon. Vice Chancellor can be seen in you tube in the link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sdxm9ZAp3c>.
