On
Alumni Meet (20-06-2023)

Since the joining of Prof Alok Kumar Chakrawal, as the Vice Chancellor of Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalay, Bilaspur (CG), several students and society centric schemes have been launched. He has encouraged each department to keep their alumni in touch with the department and this University. The Department of CSIT has also invited two of its alumni and conducted Alumni lecture cum interaction session on 20 June 2023 under the supervision of HOD, Prof Amit Kumar Saxena. Alumni Dr. Ashim Mitra, is currently working as a Scientist-'F' and Associate Project Director of Multi-mission Data Processing System of INSAT3D/3DR at Satellite Meteorology division of IMD, New Delhi and was from first batch (1996-1998) of M.Sc. Computer Science, GGV. Another alumni Dr. Abhishek Dubey, HOS, IT Department, University of Technology and Applied Science, Salalah, Oman, a former research scholar of GGV also graced the occasion. HOD of Department of Mathematics, Dr J. P. Jaiswal, Faculties and Research scholar of CSIT and Department of Mathematics were present in the session.

In his address, Dr Mitra focused on developing skill in individuals. He also discussed about importance of Remote sensing and Geospatial technologies. Dr Abhishek Dubey, currently working in Salalah, Oman said “Research is integral and essential part the world, without research we cannot exist”. A few doubts were raised by scholars and were answered satisfactorily by the speakers. The Program was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr Amit Kumar Chandanan. Event was anchored by Preeti Shukla, Research Scholar of CSIT.
