A Brief Abstract of the Event (Maximum 500 Words):

National Webinar on “New Drug Discovery: Emerging Trends in Ethnomedicine (NDD-E TE-2022)” was conducted on 10th January 2022 at SLT Department of Pharmacy, Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya (A Central University) Bilaspur (Chhattisgarh). During this event resource person from NIPER, Mohali and IITBHU has delivered expert talks on exploration of herbal drugs for future research. Analytical scientist from Anchrom Enterprises also elaborated the basics of HPTLC and its application in quality control of herbals. Two MoU were signed on that conference, one with SMBT College of Pharmacy, Nashik and the other with Anchrom Enterprises, Mumbai. Through this conference the students and faculties gained the skill for herbal drug identification, processing, storage preparation methods and quality control methods of herbals.
