Prof. Ramakrushna Pradhan has highlighted various unknown and unconcerned facts about the democracy through his lecture and has given the elaborative and useful insights on the democracy.

He has interestingly compared democracy with the salad bowl, where different types of vegetables with its unique taste are there in salad bowl and together they form a better taste, that's the democracy i.e. diversity with unity. Also, Sir has compared democracy with the lunch box and onion, where different categories and categorizations form much better Combinations.

The session come up with unique and interesting knowledge about "Democracy in India". Students got the impressive explanation and highlights on important topics of democracy and governance in the extensive sessions and also get a hands-on experience.
