DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES FOR Ph.D. IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

The Political Science Department of Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya is committed to advancing teaching and research in a wide range of Political Science areas, including Indian Politics, Comparative Politics, Public Policy, International Relations, and Human Rights. The department is offering a doctoral programme in Political Science. Along with the JRF, SRF, and National Fellowships scheduled by the UGC, Non-NET Fellowship is also provided by the university to support the researchers' research. After completing the Ph.D. programme researchers will be able to comprehend and exhibit their proficiency in the following areas:

PO-1: Prepare and motivate the scholars to advance their research careers beyond a doctoral degree, and pursue careers in academics. They also acquire interdisciplinary knowledge by highlighting connections between various socio-political and economic challenges.

PO-2: To make it possible for the researchers to explore and analyse the complexities of their disciplinary and academic investigation. To gain in-depth knowledge of the field in order to sharpen their academic intellectual abilities and develop a research interest.

PO-3: To provide socially relevant information that meets the needs of those who are most impoverished in society and enables them to acquire the knowledge and skills that are required for policy analysis and evaluation.

PO-4: Developing technical skills and an ethical perspective for data collection, handling, and operationalization. Demonstrating problem-solving abilities, analytical thinking, and scientific inquiry in examining the current challenge. to aid in the development of conceptual clarity, new ideas, and designs for carrying out their research works.

PO-5: Researchers who successfully complete this Ph.D. programme will be able to demonstrate a greater comprehension and broad knowledge foundation in their specified field of study. They would be able to identify and explain the key works in their field of study. They can undertake and direct scholarly investigations to put theoretical ideas into practise in a variety of expressions in their respective fields.

PO-6: To establish among the researchers a feeling of integrity in both their academic and social lives as well as responsible citizenship. To provide them the resources they need to be obedient and responsible citizens equipped with moral judgement and intellectual integrity for the betterment of society.

PO-7: To demonstrate awareness of local, regional, national, and global needs among the researchers. To engage them with socio-cultural contexts with emphasis on the concerns of the environment and sustainability.
