Part II - Constitutional Government and Democracy in India

Course objective: This course acquaints students with the constitutional design of state structures and institutions, and their actual working over time. The Indian Constitution accommodates conflicting impulses (of liberty and justice, territorial decentralization and a strong union, for instance) within itself. The course traces the embodiment of some of these conflicts in constitutional provisions, and shows how these have played out in political practice. It further encourages a study of state institutions in their mutual interaction, and in interaction with the larger extra-constitutional environment.

I. The Constituent Assembly and the Constitution

- Philosophy of the Constitution, the Preamble, and Features of the Constitution
- Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles

II. Organs of Union Government

- The Legislature: Parliament
- The Executive: President and Prime Minister
- The Judiciary: Supreme Court

III. Organs of State Government

- The Legislature: Vidhan Sabha, Vidhan Parishad
- The Executive: Governor and Chief Minister
- The Judiciary: High Court

IV. Federalism and Decentralization

- Federalism: Division of Powers,
- Panchayati Raj and Municipalities

Paper III – Political Theory-Concepts and Debates

Course Objective: This course is divided into two sections. Section A helps the student familiarize with the basic normative concepts of political theory. Each concept is related to a crucial political issue that requires analysis with the aid of our conceptual understanding. This exercise is designed to encourage critical and reflective analysis and interpretation of social practices through the relevant conceptual toolkit. Section B introduces the students to the important debates in the subject. These debates prompt us to consider that there is no settled way of understanding concepts and that in the light of new insights and challenges, besides newer ways of perceiving and interpreting the world around us, we inaugurate new modes of political debates.

Section A: Core Concepts

Rights: Meaning and Definition and Kinds; Theories (Theory of Natural rights. Legal Theory, Historical Theory, Social-Welfare Theory, Idealist Theory, Marxist Theory of Rights, Feminist Theory)

Liberty and Equality and Justice

a. Liberty

- Meaning, and Kinds (Negative and Positive; Civil, Political and Economic)
- Various Perspectives on Liberty (Liberal- Individualist and Marxist)

b. Equality

Paper IV- Political Process in India

Course objective: Actual politics in India diverges quite significantly from constitutional legal rules. An understanding of the political process thus calls for a different mode of analysis - that offered by political sociology. This course maps the working of 'modern' institutions, premised on the existence of an individuated society, in a context marked by communitarian solidarities, and their mutual transformation thereby. It also familiarizes students with the working of the Indian state, paying attention to the contradictory dynamics of modern state power.
