Abstract

The governing principles of feminism are that women should enjoy the same rights in the society as men and they should share equally in society's opportunities and scarce resource. Liberal form of feminism focuses on equality in workplace, in education and in political rights. For this study researcher has taken two dimensions of Liberal Feminism which are Participation in Organisation and Leadership. The purpose of this study is to find out which university gives the most positive consent with reference to Participation in Organisation and Leadership among the three Universities (Central, State and Private) and this study reveals that girl student of Central University gives the most positive consent with reference to Participation in Organisation among the three Universities while the girl students of State University give the most positive consent with reference to Leadership among the three Universities.

Introduction

Education is the most important and powerful tool of social change. Dr Radhakrishnan has termed education as a social change. He has said that work that is normally done by family, religion, social and religious institutions in the society, is today done by educational institutions. We can change the thinking of people by education and can effect progress of society. [Pachuri, G. (2009). Education in emerging India, Meerut : R Lall Book Depot, 541.]

Education, as organised and imparted, can be classified as formal, non-formal and informal. Formal education implies modification of behaviour through an organised system of education. This type of education is imparted in the schools, colleges and universities. When we see education system of India it is divided into three levels namely
