The book's focus on pandemic indicates the authors' consideration of the current scenario to facilitate their students' preparation for an exam comparable to the students' thought process according to the prescribed syllabus (and ten marks) bank and shall be prepared. So, the book is drafted in simple language for students though they serve as a one-night study for their midnight revision.

The authors express their appreciation to the pillars of support who would also like to wish all the best for the tiresome efforts and the book shall be published.
